

General Data Protection Regulations Seminar

15 June 2017

East Midlands Conference Centre, University Park, Beeston Lane, Nottingham NG7 2RJ

9:30	Registration
10:00	Welcome and agenda	Jay Parmar; Director of Policy & Membership at BVRLA
10:05	Session 1 The Data Landscape – from DPA to GDPR Examining the purpose of the legislative change, where we are now and the key changes for the future for our industry.	Kevin Parle; Data Protection Forum
10:55	Session 2 GDPR – Organisational Legal Implications Examining the legislative changes and the potential legal and punitive powers this legislation brings to our industry.	Kirsten Whitfield; Certified Information Privacy Professional/Europe, Director at Field Fisher
11:40	Coffee Break
11:55	Session 3 Enforcing GDPR – Examining the role of Data Compliance Officers and key organisational roles in GDPR. How important this key role will be, where they should sit organisationally, their responsibilities, and other roles & responsibilities within a typical organisation?	Jan Hagen; Managing Director - Financial Crime at Regulatory Finance Solutions
12:40	Lunch
13:30	Session 4 Preparing for GDPR – a member example Looking at the process a large organisation has gone through to prepare for GDPR and learning from this	Kate Hutt; Head of Legal at Arval
14:15	Session 5 Becoming GDPR ready – exploring identified organisational trends in terms shortfalls and risks.	Kirsten Whitfield; Certified Information Privacy Professional/Europe, Director at Field Fisher
15:00	Coffee Break
15:15	Panel Session Your opportunity to pose questions to all of the speakers	All speakers
16:00	Closing Comments	Jay Parmar; Director of Policy & Membership at BVRLA