

Open and in-house courses:

For vehicle rental & leasing professionals.

BVRLA Professional Development:
Developing capability, raising standards and promoting professionalism.

About the BVRLA

Established in 1967, the BVRLA is the UK trade body for companies engaged in vehicle rental, leasing and fleet management. The 980+ member organisations are collectively responsible for a combined fleet of over 5 million vehicles.

The BVRLA Professional Development team can...

Deliver solutions to help develop knowledge and skills across your organisation; building internal capabilities, delivering the highest standards and promoting professionalism across the vehicle rental and leasing industry.

Our range of courses are designed to help you...

- Understand any regulatory frameworks within which you operate and what impact they have on your business and day-to-day work.
- Understand the importance of compliance and what is required to ensure that you meet your obligations.
- Embrace a culture of continuous professional development to enable yourself and others to keep up-to-date with the latest industry standards and best practice.

Our open courses

Our open courses are delivered by industry experts with up-to-date knowledge of the latest facts, figures and findings from our research and policy teams.

To view our current offer, take a look at our website www.bvrla.co.uk

Courses are available to Members and Non-Members.

In-house courses

Our open courses can be delivered in-house, you choose the date and location. This option offers a cost-effective solution for delegate numbers of 8 or more.

We are able to tailor our courses so that the content is aligned to your business needs. Or we can develop a fully bespoke programme to address any specific concerns that you may have.

If you would like to know more, please contact the BVRLA Professional Development team at training@bvrla.co.uk